Advanced administration topics

Repository Data Model Configuration Properties: this page describes the way a data model ontology is configured into the repository. The defaults are usually OK.

Institution Specific Annotations: this page describes how to use institution specific annotations and the visibility of those annotations in the various applications.

Centrally Curated Resources: this page describes the Centrally Curated Resources repository and how eagle-i nodes can be configured to use it.